BOARD OF REGENTS

UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA SYSTEM

February 3, 1983

The Special meeting was held on the above date at the Carlson Education building at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Members present: Mr. John R. Mc Bride, Chairman

Mrs. Frankie Sue Del Papa

Mrs. Lilly Fong

Mrs. Dorothy S. Gallagher

Mr. Chris Karamanos

Mrs. Joan Kenney

Mr. Rollan Melton

Mrs. Jo Ann Sheerin

Mrs. June F. Whitley

Others present: Chancellor Robert M. Bersi

President Joseph Crowley, UNR

President Leonard Goodall, UNLV

Mr. Donald Klasic, General Counsel

Ms. Mary Lou Moser, Secretary

Also present was Mr. Gary Jones, Faculty Senate Chair, UNLV.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Mc Bride at 2:30 P.M.

1. In accordance with NRS 241.030, Mrs. Gallagher moved that the Board recess for the purpose of holding a closed personnel session to discuss the competency of University of Nevada System personnel.

The Board reconvened at 4:45 P.M. with all members present.

2. President Goodall read the following statement:

As late as 48 hours ago, I thought I might have to come before this Board and recommend the discontinuation of football at UNLV. As unpopular as that action would have been I was prepared to bring you such recommendation if that proved to be the only viable alternative. Happily, the hard work of the Athletic Director, the cooperation and understanding of the coaches, the efforts of the Chairman of the Board of Regents, and the support of other members of the Board made it possible to work out a reasonable budget for next year that will include a much reduced, but still a workable budget for football.

It has been my feeling throughout this process, that with the opening of the new Thomas and Mack Center next year, there were simply too many budget uncertainties facing us for us to make such a final and definitive decision as the dropping of football. It is worth at least another year of review and observation.

I believe the budget is built on reasonable and realistic revenue projections. We have projected increased ticket revenues for basketball, but no profits or box rentals from the Thomas and Mack Center are included in the budget. We have also budgeted no television revenue, and no revenue from post-season play in any sport. It is quite likely, that some of these sources will produce revenues which can be used to meet other revenue shortfalls, to establish a contingency account or to retire the prior year's deficit.

It is a very tight budget, but one that the Athletic Department can live with.

I intend to emphasize to every coach and every Athletic Department staff member that in 1983-84 there will be no higher priority in their job responsibilities, including their win-loss record, than living within their budgets. That is an absolutely essential element for maintaining financial control of the program.

I also plan to ask the Controller's Office to establish the most rigorous kind of month-by-month reporting and control mechanisms so that we may have an early warning system in case of any potential problems in the future. With such a system we can make adjustments quickly if expenditures and revenues begin to get out of line.

Not only the level of the budget, but the level of our rhetoric is going to be reduced. In our football program in particular, the excessive enthusiasm of some people both inside and outside the University has caused us for years to try to move too far, too fast. We had not yet won our first game in the PCAA when there were those calling for UNLV to transfer the PAC 10 into the PAC 11. There are those who think that such talk is just good, healthy fan enthusiasm. I do not agree. I think that such rhetoric creates unrealistic and unreachable expectations. We have no reason to apologize for the fact that we are not going to have an Alabama, Oklahoma, Ohio State or UCLA type football program in the immediate future. We do not have 40,000 students on this Campus to pay student fees, or 20,000,000 citizens to pay taxes. That does not mean that we may not play such teams on occasions, but overall our budget will not come close to equaling theirs. We want to be a good competitor in the PCAA. We want to have as good a team as an 11,000 student University and a sparsely populated state can reasonably expect to have. We want our goals and expectations to be realistic.

I want to thank both the Athletic Long-Range Planning Commission and UNLV Intercollegiate Athletics Council for their comments and recommendations on the University athletic program. Many of their ideas are incorporated in the steps being taken to improve the program.

Finally, I want to thank this Board for the support, time and effort it has devoted to UNLV athletics. You have contributed far more than any lay board can reasonably be expected to do. I wish that months or weeks ago I could have brought you a simple Presidential recommendation which you could have acted upon and that would have been the end of it. But, alas, there were and are no simple answers. I think we have turned a corner with UNLV athletics. But there is no final solution that can be guaranteed permanently. Next year we will have the advantage of one full year of information on the impact of the Thomas and Mack Center. If hard decisions have to be made at that time, we should not shrink from them or delay them further. I am convinced that UNLV athletics will be better and stronger because of the attention we have given the current crisis and because of our response to it.

We are ready to move ahead.

3. President Goodall recommended the following budget:

ed. Motion carried.

4. President Goodall recommended that the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and the University System disassociate itself from all prior organizations that have been involved in University fund raising for athletics at UNLV, including the University Rebels Club. He further stated that if the recommendation was accepted, he would instruct the UNLV Athletic Department to explore alternatives for fund raising structures to be used in the future.

Mrs. Gallagher moved to approve the recommendation. Mrs. Sheerin seconded. Motion carried with Mr. Karamanos voting no.

The meeting adjourned at 5:10 P.M.
