EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

August 3, 1953

A meeting was held in the President's office at the University for the purpose of opening bids on painting of Manzanita Hall. Notice of the bid opening had duly appeared in the local newspapers.

Present: Regent Ross, President Stout, Comptroller Hayden, Superintendent Horn and 6 members of bidding firms. Mr. Hardy was out of town. Dr. Lombardi was unable to leave his office.

The meeting was called to order at 4 P.M. by Chairman Ross, who opened the bids as follows:

Lindell Painting Service	$3,739.20
Nevada Painting and Sandblasting Company	6,954.99
Weil Construction Company	3,956.00
Henry F. Smith	2,835.00
Julius F. Caselli	2,130.00
James Cristello	3,297.00
Springer Decorating Service	3,345.00
N. K. Everett	4,217.65
Tom Johnson	3,795.00

The bids of N. K. Everett and Tom Johnson were not accompanied by certified check or bond, as required in bid notice, and so their bids could not be considered.

The bids were referred to the Comptroller for listing and recommendation to the Executive Committee of the Board of Regents.

On August 7, 1953, the bids having been tabulated and studied by Comptroller Hayden and Mr. Horn, the members of the Executive Committee were polled by the Secretary. The decision was unanimous that the bid be awarded to the lowest bidder, Mr. J. F. Caselli, in the amount of $2130, and that the checks and bonds accompanying the other bids be returned.
