Volume 5 - Pages 31-32

Reno, Nevada
September 29, 1928

Chairman Pratt and Judge Brown met in the President's Office to transact the regular month-end business of the Board. Mr. Wingfield was absent.

On motion of Mr. Pratt, List No. 22, State Claims Nos. 216 to 223 for the net sum of $18,438.61, and List No. 10, Regents Checks Nos. 8111 to 8127 for the net sum of $53,179.09, were approved by the following vote:

Judge Brown	Aye
Mr. Pratt	Aye

(This same morning Mr. Gorman secured Mr. Wingfield's signature to both of the above lists and thus had the 3 required signatures.)

Chairman Pratt submitted the case of student Hainer and suggested that President Clark should secure an interpretation by the Attorney General regarding the non-resident tuition law as applied to students whose families do not live in Nevada.

Chairman Pratt opened bids for the University's supply for fuel oil from the following companies: Associated, Richfield, Union, Shell, Standard, Eddington Gas and Refinery Company. The last named company has no Nevada Agency and their bid was not considered. The other prices were, with one exception, all $1.892 per bbl. delivered. The exception was the Shell Company, which was one cent higher.

It has been customary to rotate fuel oil contracts. The Secretary looked up the order of succession and found that the Standard Oil Company had the contract for 1922 and 1923, the Shell Company for 1924, the Associated for 1925, the Union for 1926, and the Richfield for 1927. Comptroller Gorman was downtown and not available for conference regarding oil contracts. After discussion the subject was left with the understanding that on May, October 1st, at a mutually convenient time, Comptroller Gorman and the 3 Reno Regents should discuss and adjust this matter.
