TECHNOLOGY IN SPECIAL EDUCATION
Assignment 9

There are many types of assistive technologies used to assist students with special needs in the classroom. Technologies range from alternate keyboards, voice recognition software, pointing devices, etc.

Locate and read a journal article that discusses an assistive technology used in the classroom for students with special needs.

a) Use CSN Library Journal databases such as ERIC (www.csn.edu/library or articles found in Google Scholar must be used to conduct your research. No other resources will be accepted.

b) Locate the discussion board heading in this week’s module called assistive technology

c) In a paragraph or two, explain why you selected the technology and discuss how the use of the technology that you selected will impact education and the students in the classroom

d) Submit a copy of your response in MS Word and upload to the submit assignment link to be graded. Double space Include your references in MLA or APA format.

e) Respond to your classmates’ questions about your topic